

Review Chs. 15-18

Latin via Ovid

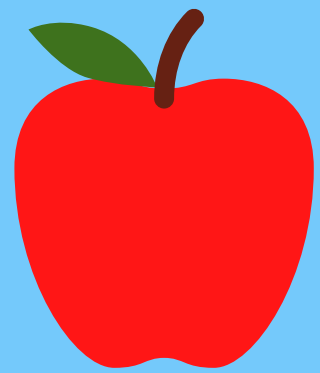

Dr. Stark

DECEM

~~VIGINTI~~

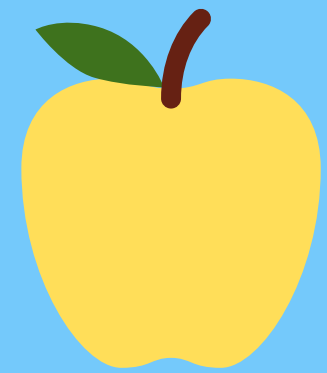

QUAESTIŌNĒS

Which apple did Venus give to the young man?

_____ Venus iuvenī dedit.

Was it this golden apple?

Eratne _____?

Yes, she gave that apple to him.

Ita, _____ dedit.

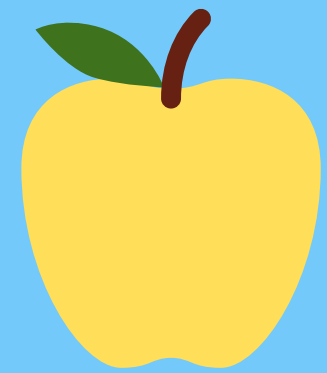

Which apple did Venus give to the young man?

Quod pōmum Venus iuvenī dedit?

Was it this golden apple?

Eratne hoc aureum pōmum?

Yes, she gave that apple to him.

Ita, eī illud pōmum dedit.

From what tree did Venus pluck these apples?

Ab _____ Venus _____ pōma carpsit?

Was it this tree, which stands on this side of the temple?

Eratne _____ arbor, _____ templī stat?

No, it is that tree which stands on that side.

Nōn, _____ arbor est, _____ stat.

From what tree did Venus pluck these apples?

Ab quā arbore Venus haec pōma carpsit?

Was it this tree, which stands on this side of the temple?

Eratne haec arbor, quae hinc templī stat?

No, it is that tree which stands on that side.

Nōn, illa arbor est, quae illinc stat.

To whom did Venus give those apples?

_____ Venus _____ pōma dedit?

She gave them to a suitor, whose father is Megareus.*

_____ procō dedit, _____ pater Megareus est.

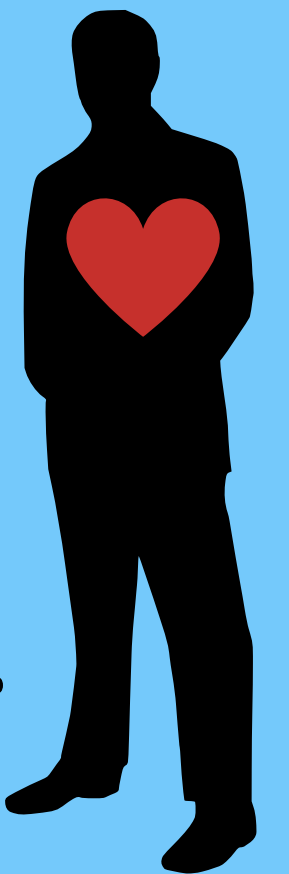

For what reason did he desire them?

_____ _____ dēsiderat.

He desired to surpass Atalanta, whom he loves.

Atalantam, _____ amat, superāre dēsiderat.

*dative of possession

To whom did Venus give those apples?

Cui Venus illa pōma dedit?

She gave them to a suitor, whose father is Megareus.

Ea procō dedit, cui pater Megareus est.*

For what reason did he desire them?

Cui rationī ea dēsiderat.

He desired to surpass Atalanta, whom he loves.

Atalantam, quam amat, superāre dēsiderat.

*dative of possession

Who is this young woman who was winning in the contest?

_____ est _____ virgō, _____ in certāmine vincēbat?

She is the king's daughter, with whom suitors run.

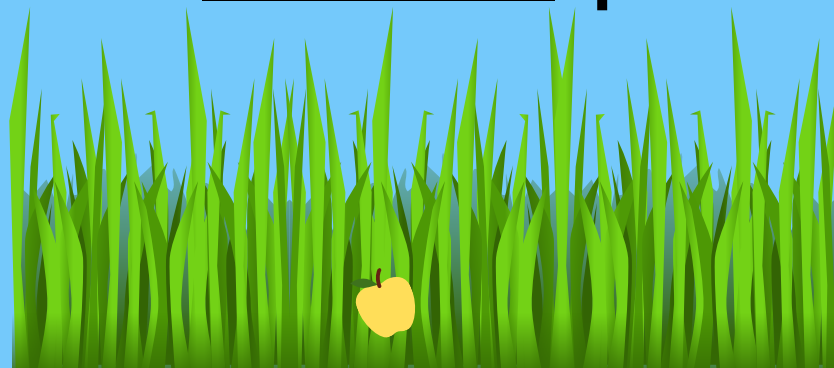

_____ est fīlia regis, _____ procī currunt.

In what manner/How did Hippomenēs defeat her?

_____ Hippomenēs _____ vīcit?

She picked those apples, which he had thrown into the field.

_____ pōma, _____ in agrum iēc erat, carpsit.

Who is this young woman who was winning in the contest?

Quis est haec virgō, quae in certāmine vincēbat?

She is the king's daughter, with whom suitors run.

Ea est fīlia regis, quācum procī currunt.

In what manner/How did Hippomenēs defeat her?

Quōmodō Hippomenēs eam vīcit?

She picked those apples, which he had thrown into the field.

Illa pōma, quae is in agrum iēcērat, carpsit.

