

Verbs, Verbs, Verbs, Review Chs. 15-18 verbs, verbs, verbs, Latin via Ovid Dr. Stark verbs verbs verbs

Latin via Ovid

Dr. Stark

Pyramus  loves Thisbe, who was dwelling in the house next door.

Pyramus Thisbēn_____, quae in domū vīcīnā _____.
The youths have spoken through the crack in the wall and have given kisses.

Iuvenēs per fissum in pariete _____ et oscula _____.
Their parents had tried to prohibit their love.

Parentēs amorem eōrum _____ .

Pyramus loves Thisbe, who was dwelling in the house next door.

Pyramus Thisbēn amat, quae in domū vīcīnā habitābat.

The youths haven spoken through the crack in the wall and have given kisses.

Iuvenēs per fissum in pariete dīxērunt et oscula dedērunt.

Their parents had tried to prohibit their love.

Parentēs amorem eōrum prohibēre temptāverant.

Love will make a way.

Amor viam _____.

Pyramus and Thisbē will meet under the tree at night.

Nocte Pyramus et Thisbē sub arborem _____.

They will deceive their parents and will leave behind their homes.

Parentēs _____ et domō _____.

Love will make a way.
Amor viam faciet.

Pyramus and Thisbē will meet under the tree at night.
Nocte Pyramus et Thisbē sub arborem convenient.
They will deceive their parents and will leave behind
their homes.

Parentēs fallent et domōs relinquent.

Thisbe will arrive and will run away from a lion.

Thisbe _____ et ā leōne _____.

She will come out from the cave and will see the body of Pyramus.

Ex spēluncā _____ et corpus Pyramī _____.

The parents will place their ashes in one urn.

Parentēs cinerem in unā urnā _____.

Thisbe will arrive and will run away from a lion.

Thisbe conveniet et ā leōne curret.

She will come out from the cave and will see the body of Pyramus.

Ex spēluncā veniet et corpus Pyramī vidēbit.

The parents will place their ashes in one urn.

Parentēs cinerem in unā urnā ponent.

The beauty of Atalanta is praised by the young men.

Fōrma Atalantae ab iuvenībus _____.

A spouse will be avoided by Atalanta.

Coniunx ab Atalantā _____.

The winner of the race will be crowned.

Victor cursūs _____.

The beauty of Atalanta is praised by the young men.

Fōrma Atalantae ab iuvenībus laudātur.

A spouse will be avoided by Atalanta.

Coniunx ab Atalantā ēvītābitur.

The winner of the race will be crowned.

Victor cursūs corōnābitur.

The law of the contest was being heard by the spectators.

Lēx certāminis ā spectātoribus audiēbantur.

The golden apples will be given to the young man.

Pōma aurea iuvenī dābitur.

Food was being carried to the king.

Cibum regī portābātur.

