

Practice of Conditions

ANSWER KEY:

1. Sī Iāsōn taurīs iūctīs agrum arāverit atque dentēs dracōnis sparserit, vellera eī trādentur.
If Jason plows the field with the yoked bulls and scatters the dragon's teeth, the fleece will be handed over to him. FUTURE MORE VIVID
2. Nesciō quis deus obstat, nisi hoc est quod amāre vocātur.
I do not know what god stands in the way, unless it is this that is called love. PRESENT GENERAL
3. Nisi opem tulerō, taurī ignem ex ōre spīrābunt in eum, aut avidō dracōnī dabitur.
Unless I bring aid, the bulls will breathe fire from their mouth against him or he will be given to the greedy dragon. FUTURE MORE VIVID
4. Sī Mēdēa Iāsōnem nōn iūvisset, Iāsōn vellus aureum nōn cēpisset.
If Medea had not helped Jason, Jason would not have taken the golden fleece. PAST CONTRARY-TO-FACT
5. Sī Mēdēa Iāsōnem amet, auxilium eī det.
If Medea should love Jason, she would give aid to him. FUTURE LESS VIVID
6. Sī Aesōn essem rēx, Iāsōn ad Colchidem nāvigāret.
If Aeson were king, Jason would not sail to Colchis. PRESENT CONTRARY-TO-FACT
7. Sī quicquid timuī, timuī dē coniuge sōlō.
If I feared anything, I feared only about my husband. PAST GENERAL
8. Sī Pythia oraculum nuntiavisset, Pelias Iāsōnem hoc iter ad Colchidem facere nōn iussisset.
If the Pythia had not announced the oracle, Pelias would not have ordered Jason to make this journey to Colchis. PAST CONTRARY-TO-FACT