

Purpose and Result Practice

ANSWER KEY

Purpose and Result Clause Practice:

Mēdēa ad ārās antīquās Hecatēs it ut carmina sēcrēta et artēs magicās discat.

Medea goes to the ancient altars in order that she may learn the secret spells and magical arts.

Mēdēa ad ārās antīquās Hecatēs ībit ut carmina sēcrēta et artēs magicās discat.

Medea will go to the ancient altars in order that she may learn the secret spells and magical arts.

Mēdēa ad ārās antīquās Hecatēs īvit ut carmina sēcrēta et artēs magicās discat.

Medea has gone to the ancient altars in order that she may learn the secret spells and magical arts.

Mēdēa ad ārās antīquās Hecatēs īverit ut carmina sēcrēta et artēs magicās discat.

Medea will have gone to the ancient altars in order that she may learn the secret spells and magical arts.

Mēdēa ad ārās antīquās Hecatēs ībat ut carmina sēcrēta et artēs magicās disceret.

Medea was going to the ancient altars in order that she might learn the secret spells and magical arts.

Mēdēa ad ārās antīquās Hecatēs īvit ut carmina sēcrēta et artēs magicās disceret.

Medea went to the ancient altars in order that she might learn the secret spells and magical arts.

Mēdēa ad ārās antīquās Hecatēs īverat ut carmina sēcrēta et artēs magicās disceret.

Medea had gone to the ancient altars in order that she might learn the secret spells and magical arts.

Iāson sē aquīs Lēthaeīs sparsit et ter dīxit verba ut somnus in oculōs dracōnis venīret.

Jason sprinkled himself with Lethean waters and said three times words in order that sleep might come to the eyes of the dragon.

Iāson ex galeā aēneā dentēs serpentis excēpit ut eōs in agrōs spargeret.

Jason took out the teeth of the serpent from the bronze helmet in order that he might scatter them into the fields.

Filius Aesonis tam fōrmōsus fuit, ut Mēdēae amantī ignōscere possēs.

The son of Aeson was so beautiful (with the result) that you could forgive Medea for loving (him).

Filius Aesonis tam fōrmōsus est, ut Mēdēae amantī ignōscere possīs.

The son of Aeson is so beautiful, (with the result) that you can forgive Medea for loving (him).

Taurī tantōs ignēs efflant ut herbae ignibus tāctae ardeant.

The bulls breathe forth such great fires (with the result) that the grasses having been touched by the flames are burning.

Taurī tantōs ignēs efflābant ut herbae ignibus tāctae ardērent.

The bulls were breathing forth such great fires (with the result) that the grasses having been touched by the flames burned.

Tantum medicāmina poterant ut sine timōre iugum grave in umerīs taurōrum pōneret.

The drugs were so powerful (with the result) that he put the heavy yoke on the shoulders of the bulls without fear.

Dentēs tam celeriter crēscēbant ut nova corpora hominum fierent.

The teeth were growing so quickly (with the result) that new bodies of men were being made.